AnySquared Projects, in collaboration with artists and neighbors, invites the public to a flurry of activities including the Logan Square Holiday Art Sale, open studios, exhibitions, and more! Explore our community at this 1-day extravaganza of art and fun around the 2200-2300 blocks of Milwaukee.

CHICAGO | Come make a day of it on Saturday, December 4 from 2-9pm! Experience neighbors coming together to create a little extra warmth this holiday season with a flurry of activity. This inclusive event invites the public to see art, meet local artists, and explore our community rich in culture and diversity of ideas and backgrounds. Be a part of this 1-day extravaganza in the two blocks around California and Milwaukee.

In the center of it all is the Logan Square Holiday Art Sale at Cole's Bar, 2338 North Milwaukee. The holiday art sale, with it's focus on local fine artists, features an amazing assortment of original art and handmade items including: paintings, prints, drawings, photography, letterpress, cards, buttons, collages, recycled crafts, silk-screened bags, non-denominational holiday balls, dioramas, jewelry, Mexican wrestling masks, and much, much more! Many items are under $50.

Bring your friends for a short walk along Milwaukee Avenue for the Winter Celebration. After the holiday art sale, visit Sulzen Fine Arts Studio; see exhibitions featuring neighborhood artists at Revolution Brew and Hairitics; have a snack at Chicken Run or other local restaurants; check out the art and glass at Anti-Matter Studio; view art installation at Threads Etc.; stop by Cafe Mustache for a cup-o-joe and local crafts then listen to a tribute to John Lennon by local musicians; and make sure to remember some summer color and explore the vibrant LIMIT Community Mural.

The Logan Square Holiday Art Sale & Winter Celebration is organized by AnySquared Projects. For information, email LSartsale@gmail.com, call 773-862-9609 or visit the Logan Square Holiday Art Sale page at www.anysquared.com/2010_holiday/holiday10.htm.

PARTICIPATING IN THE
LOGAN SQUARE HOLIDAY ART SALE:

The Arts For Life is a dynamic community of adults with and without disabilities working to create an artistic environment to realize their full potential. This intrinsically multitalented group encourages self respect, inspired artistic expression, community building and independence.

Laura McManus Clouds

Brian Krueger 3D Painting

Brian Reed Tomado

Aside from helping each other reach their potential in the visual arts, the Arts For Life group is also home to the The Arts of Life Band, a collaborative, danceable, party-music group with a rock edge.

Larissa Maya ABCs Colors

Upon exploring this unique group of amazing artists one is sure to be stirred to push past their own challenges, whatever they may be.

Creating. Sharing. Growing.
